Crops Benefit by Rain Improving the South Road

The crop situation has improved considerably during the past week, rain having fallen in varying quantities throughout the Western Bow Valley irrigation block, in common with most of the province.

Last Wednesday's rain averaged from half an inch up to an inch, and Calgary reported an inch and one fifth. Following that have been several local showers.

On Monday evening Carlsland had 35 of an inch of rain. Crops around Strathmore and most other points in the block are looking well. The results of irrigation are becoming apparent where water was put on some time ago. Irrigation is still being used very extensively.

Rockford district has been unfortunate in its last few weeks. In the amount of precipitation received, but it is hoped that they will get the benefit of later rains.

There is a fair amount of moisture from now till harvest, there is every prospect of a good crop throughout this district. The grain, except to some farmers, is in much better shape than at this time last year, although it is a little later.

U. F. A. Sports

Under the auspices of Strathmore, Carlsland, Namaka and several other U.F.A. Locals in the district, a big sports day and picnic is to be held at the Bow River Bridge, southeast of Carlsland, on Wednesday July 12.

Boat races, tumbling, horse and foot races, and other sports, there will be a baseball game between High Schools, Strathmore and Carlsland and Strathmore Locals will meet in a tug-of-war.

Details will be found in our advertising columns and from posters.

Nightingale Sports

The annual Nightingale Sports will be held at Archie McLean's Ranch near Wednesday, July 12th. The committee in charge have arranged a first class list of events, and the day will be fully up to the standard that has been set by Nightingale in the past.

There is a good programme of horse races, also boxing competition, and there will also be, besides the foot races, tug-of-war, baseball, and football events. Strathmore Band will be in attendance. Details can be had from posters now out.

Carlsland Wins

With pretty much the same teams as last year, the Carlsland team, with the difference that the game was played on the Carlsland grounds, Carlsland easily won a victory. The game was, however, much closer, as the score, 5-2. In the first half, Carlsland led by 5-0. In the second half, Strathmore led by 2-0. The result was in doubt till the last minutes. Strathmore picked up Carlsland and South for Strathmore.

Strathmore were ahead in the first ten minutes, but in the tenth Carlsland led in two runs, and added another run in the fifth and sixth innings.

The contest was a long argument to the fourth innings over an umpire's decision following a clever double play by the Carlsland team.

Rev. A. H. Rowe Opens Pastorate

Rev. A. H. Rowe, the new pastor of the Union Church, Strathmore, held his initial services in Strathmore last Sunday, when he presided with much acceptance to good congregations at both services.

Last night a social meeting was held in the church bazaar room.

Mr. Rowe's last charge was at Port Saskatchewan, and previous to leaving there a public farewell meeting was held in the church, when Mr. and Mrs. Rowe were made a handsome presentation, and many remarks were expressed at their departure, coupled with the best wishes for their success in the Strathmore charge.

The following address, signed by representatives of the Port Saskatchewan church was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, along with a purse containing a creditable sum of money.

Port Saskatchewan, June 22, 1922.

To Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe:

We, the members and adherents of your pastorate, the Port Saskatchewan Church, included in which are the districts of Beaver Hills, Pleasant View, Deep Creek, Good Hope, Partridge Hill, Yorkville and Port Saskatchewan, desire to publicly express our high regard for you and our sincere appreciation of your faithful and devoted service given so freely to us during the past three years.

We would have been glad to have retained your services for a longer period, but the fact have decided otherwise, and now that you are about to be transferred to another field we pray that God's richest blessing may accompany you and be upon you and your interesting family, and that your usefulness and service in all your dealings, whether in the field of sport or in connection with our public pastorate.

Mr. Rowe has been making his best efforts to uphold you in your work. You are indeed fortunate in having such an accomplished and accomplished husband, and we are sure of your stay amongst your friends of the Port Saskatchewan Circuit.

TENNIS

The Rockysburg Tennis Club paid Strathmore a visit last Wednesday but owing to rain the games were called off. While this was some disappointment all agreed that the rain was doing more good than the tennis could, and the players have arranged for two more games with Rockysburg, one in each town later on in the season.

Although tennis was out of the question for the day, the ladies took advantage of the kindness of Mrs. Givins' hospitality who threw her house open to the local club a series of games which resulted in a draw of eight games each. The games were all interesting and provided some real good tennis. During the games the various players and friends were entertained at tea by Mrs. Givins.

Last Saturday "Donation Day" the Calgary St. Michaels Club came down and played the local club a series of games which resulted in a draw of eight games each. The games were all interesting and provided some real good tennis. During the games the various players and friends were entertained at tea by Mrs. Givins.

FALSE ECONOMY HAS NO VALUE

Buying Cheap Does Just Because They Are Cheap Does Not Pay

QUALITY OFTEN OVERLOOKED
instance seen in Case of Mail Order Houses Which Make Their Appeal Based on Basis of Price

Economy is one of the greatest virtues but false economy is no more of a virtue than anything else that is false. To be able to economize wisely is one of the greatest blessings that one can have, for it is the prerequisite to thrift and well-being. Too many persons, however, who think they have found the secret of true economy are practicing a false economy which will sooner or later result in loss.

For instance, the man who buys a stove from a mail order house for $9 because he thinks he would have to pay $10 for one if he purchased it from his home merchant, is practicing a false economy, for the chances are that he would save more than $1 in the end if he purchased the $10 stove from his local hardware dealer.

There are several reasons why this is false economy. The first one is that dollar for dollar, the greater part of the merchandise sold by the mail order houses is of less value than that sold by the retail merchant of the smaller communities. The mail order houses sell a stove, a sink, a bathtub, etc., at a lower price than the local hardware dealer. In order to attract customers the mail order houses must sell cheaply and in order to do that they must sell cheap goods. Their business is built up on price and not on quality. The retail hardware dealer, like retail dealers in other lines, probably can match the prices of the mail order houses. He probably has a $9 stove which he can sell to the man who wants to get a stove for $9. The trouble is that the man who buys from the mail order house does not distinguish between price and quality.

Thinks He is Economizing
The man who buys the $9 stove from the mail order house probably would not buy a $9 stove from his local merchant, for in the latter case he would see just what he was buying and might

NIGHTINGALE NOTES

The program prepared by Mrs. Moore, consisting of songs, recitations and instrumental music, was very much enjoyed by the members of the Women's Institute on June 22 and the subsequent lunch left nothing to be desired. Mrs. Moore is certainly a royal entertainer and we will all look forward to our musical program next year.

The Adelaide U.F.W.A. will meet with Mrs. McKenzie on July 4th, where the Nightingale U.F.W.A. will be the guests of the afternoon.

Monday July 2, was Rev. Mr. Chaplin's first service at Nightingale. There will be preaching services every Sunday from now on. At Nightingale next Sunday night service is cordially invited to these services. Sunday school at 2:30 and preaching at 2:30.

The ladies aid of Nightingale will hold an open and general utility garment sale the first Thursday in August. Every lady in the vicinity is invited. Bring an apron and have a good time. Lunch will be served. A good deal of merchandise is being undertaken this year according to reports from southern Alberta. M. L. Pense, Agricultural Agent at Lebberley reports, could expect summerfall being done in excellent manner, the practice of cropping the land in strips to prevent soil drifting has also been carried out this year north of Lebberley in considerable extent. Stripping of corn with corn and oats is also being carried out.

Millions Now Living Will Never Die

This was the title of an interesting address given by Mr. W. H. McLean, Calgary, at Strathmore Memorial Hall, on June 25, under the auspices of the International Bible Students.

The following is a synopsis of Mr. McLean's theory:
"All true Christians accept the Bible as the inspired Word of God given to man for his instruction. It is an outline of God's plan written in such a manner that it can be understood only as the Lord is pleased to unfold it. This unfolding occurs by the happening of great events in the world. Prophecy means to foretell what is going to happen, and history is a record of what has happened; therefore, when prophecy is fulfilled it can be understood."

The death and resurrection of Jesus occurred more than eighteen hundred years ago. Why, then, has his death resulted in bringing life to the human race? The answer is that the Scriptures set forth that it is God's purpose to take out from among the nations a people for his name (Acts 15:14), and after this he will set up his Kingdom. Before Jesus ascended on high he informed his followers that he would return and receive them to himself, and from Pentecost until his Kingdom he has been gathering out from the world those willing to make a voluntary sacrifice with him and be his faithful followers unto death. These were the apostles, constitute with Jesus the seed of promise through which the blessings should come—Galatians 3:16, 27, 29.

The all-important question, then, is: At what time should men expect these long-promised blessings to begin? All faithful Jews have looked forward to the fulfilling of the promise of blessing of life on earth at the end of the world. Christians have had the same thought. By "world" is meant a period of time during which a certain social and political order exists. It does not mean the earth, for the "earth shall endure forever" (Isaiah 1:4).

Students of divine prophecy, regarding the manner of fulfillment of other prophecies, for the past half-century have been looking forward with great expectation to the time of the Lord's return and the setting up of his Kingdom. Bible students frequently call attention to that period of time in the fact that 1914 would mark the beginning of a different order of things in the earth.

The Jews have returned to Palestine and are rebuilding their own land. Christ further stated that at the time in question upon earth there would be "distress of nations, with fear" (Isaiah 2:12). Surely if these things had been written this year they could not be more appropriate, because exactly what he foretold is now being fulfilled throughout the earth.

The time, therefore, is definitely located. The evidence is conclusive of the Lord's presence. The World War marked the end of the gentile dominion, the end of the world and there it began to pass away and will terminate with the greatest trouble yet. Then will begin the restoration blessings according to the promise.

Again Bible students call attention to the fact that 1925 marks the beginning of the great anti-typical Jubilee. Hence it is expected that that will mark the end of wars, revolutions and anarchy in the earth and conditions will rapidly begin to take a favorable form under the direction of the great Messiah.

Without a doubt millions of people now on earth will be living then, and since the chief purpose of the plan is to give the obedient ones the

OF LOCAL INTEREST
Readers are requested to send in items for this column not later than 12 o'clock Monday night preceding day of publication. All local news items are welcomed by the Standard. Phone 17 or 18.

A real old-time barn dance was held at Benson, Pringle's, last Thursday evening, and there were crowds from all over the country. Strathmore starting a barn contest. A great time was had till nearly four in the morning to the strains of Hilda's Orchestra. Proceeds were for the benefit of Strathmore Catholic Church, and thanks are due to Mr. Pringle for his hospitality.

Sunday was observed locally as Dominion Day. Outside of the town, however, there was not much on the early, and many took the opportunity of visiting Calgary Fair. Mr. F. W. Lord, baritone, Calgary, delivered a very interesting lecture, illustrated by lantern views, on "Astronomy" to the members of Strathmore Masonic Lodge on Monday evening. Strathmore G.W.V.A. are planning for a sports day on July 15th.

STRATHMORE VALE SCHOOL PICNIC
A most enjoyable afternoon was spent at the grounds of the now-named school on June 30th. The occasion being the annual picnic for the children. There was a large attendance and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. There was an abundance of ice cream, candies, nuts and all kinds of cake, and much water to satisfy the inner man. A valuable prize was given to the winners in each of the events.

The sports program opened with a baseball game and was indeed a fine display of the manly art, and concluded with a tug-of-war between the ladies and gentlemen, which resulted as on a former occasion, in a victory for the ladies with two singular results. I must say indeed that the ladies deserve great credit for beating their opponents when you consider the weight of Messrs. Galpin, Taylor, Mercer and others at the other end of the rope.

This school will open again on August 14th with Mr. Buckley, at the request of the school board, again in charge.

The following is a list of events with winners' names:

WEDDING

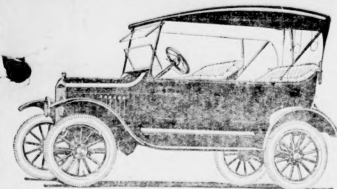

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Central Methodist Church at 11.30 Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Emma Irene Gardiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gardiner, Bowley, Alta., and Mr. Edward Schaefer, Strathmore, Alta., were united in marriage. Rev. Chas. Sykes conducted the ceremony.

On the arm of Mr. A. Morrice, to the bride. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, radiant trimmed with seed pearls and pink-centered roses; she wore a large white georgette cape, beautifully trimmed and carried a bouquet of pink roses and mauve sweet peas.

The groom was supported by Mr. Wm. Rynn. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold watch and chain. The groom's gift to the bride was an amber-mounted pipe and to Mr. Morrice an amber cigarette holder, while the bridesmaid received four carriages. During the signing of the register, Miss Chamberlain rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

After the ceremony the bride and party repaired to the Empress Grill where a dainty supper was served. The table was covered with the bride's cake and was prettily decorated with roses and sweet peas. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts including cut glass and silverware from the staff of the North American Colonies & Coal Sellers Ltd., with whom she was lately employed.

The happy couple amidst the good wishes of their friends left on the evening train for Banff where they will spend the honeymoon, the bride wearing a black satin dress trimmed with beads and grey embroidery and wearing a large black hat to match. Upon their return to the City they will reside in the Devonshire Apartments.

Own Your Home

A campaign that is worthy of support, and one it is to be hoped will prove quite a number of cities and is finding prominence in the news and advertising columns of the daily press. It is a campaign to educate people as to the wisdom of taking steps to acquire a home of their own instead of remaining "renters" all their life.

While such a campaign can probably be carried on more spectacularly and effectively in the larger centres of population, it is one that might well be extended to towns, villages and hamlets, and what is of even greater importance, to the strictly rural communities.

Nothing is quite so well calculated to give stability to a nation as to have its citizens, to as great an extent as possible, the actual owners of the dwellings in which they reside. When a man or woman has a stake in his or her country, not only and least community in the form of a piece of land owned by them and upon which they have established their home, certain very desirable results follow.

In the first place, such persons are far less likely to be influenced by demagogic appeals of agitators designed to undermine the stability of the state and shake public confidence in national institutions. The person with a fixed stake and interest in the country will give second thought before embarking on a rash enterprise, whereas people having no such interest in the country are more easily led astray by the professional trouble maker.

Ownership of a home constitutes a powerful factor leading to permanence of population. It is the man having no real interest in a community, as evidenced by lack of his own home, who is here today and gone tomorrow. It is the renters of the world who are forever on the move and who because of a lack of a stake in a given community will likely keep on moving and never assume anything.

People living in rented premises are paying the landlord's taxes for him, a good rate of interest on his investment, thus yielding him a profit and in the long run actually paying for the property. The amount thus paid out annually in rental would in the course of years pay the purchase price and the present short-sighted renter have an asset to show for his money.

The family living in a rented home inevitably lose care of the property that would be the case if it was their own. They do not exert themselves to anything like the extent an owner would to improve and beautify the property, with the result that communities where renters predominate do not present the same prosperous, goaded appearance which marks a community of home owners. The incentive to steadily add to the value of the property is lacking; on the contrary, the opposite effect is too frequently noted because improvement of the property by the renter may easily result in a demand from the landlord for a higher rental.

What is true in the case of the resident of a city or town is equally true of the renter farmer as contrasted with the farmer-owner. It is the renter who strives to get all the use out of the soil during the usually brief period of his sojourn on the land. He is not concerned about the future, with the result that the land and buildings deteriorate and the community, province and country suffer loss.

It is gratifying to learn, therefore, from statistics recently compiled that no other country in the world shows such a high proportion of home owners in the larger cities as does the Dominion of Canada, and in this respect the cities of Western Canada are ahead of those in the Eastern Provinces. It is probably true, too, although figures are not available, that in respect to ownership of land by farmers who are tilling the soil Canada occupies a higher place than other countries. The majority of farmers in Canada are owners, not renters, but there appears to be a tendency in this country—and to an even more alarming degree in the United States—for renters to increase in number. Great Britain has realized the mistake of having large tracts of land owned by the few and the great majority of agriculturists reduced to renters. Now the great English estates are being broken up, and many farmers are thus being enabled to secure land of their own.

Here in Canada the stability of the state, the securing of permanence of population, the improvement and permanent development of property, and the maintenance of a high standard of living all call for the giving of every possible encouragement to people to become the owners of homes of their own. Buying or building a home is good business for the individual as well as for the state. "Own Your Home" should be the ambition of every Canadian.

Persistence and will power he should have, but whether he has or doesn't, it is his business to get it. Hard working men often have a tendency to neglect their health. LINGERING WEAKNESS FOLLOWING DISEASE

Due to the Fact that the Blood has Become Thin and Watery

In almost every case the victims of a gripe, influenza, fever and contagious troubles, are left weak, ailing and despondent after the disease is over. Their blood is thin and watery, and their strength has disappeared. They do not pick up strength and energy, and remain tired, listless and discouraged. The reason for this is that the blood has been impoverished by the ravage of the disease through which the victim has passed. Strength and full activity will not return until the blood has been restored to its normal condition. The blood can be enriched and purified quickly and surely by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

To enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves, is the whole mission of these pills, and thousands have found them beneficial after disease had left them weak and run down. Among those who have proved the value of these pills in cases of this kind is Mr. Charles J. Turner, light keeper Third Coast light station, N.S., who says:—"In Jan. 1917, I took a severe cold, which I had been told would be a cold, but it was not. When I was able to get up and all around the house, I found that I was not feeling my usual strength. In fact I seemed to be growing weaker and weaker and could not get on my feet. I took an enema, but it did not help me. Then one day I saw here, 'Here's some Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; just the thing to get you on your feet again.' I took them and took six boxes more and now I am as strong as ever. By the time the last box was empty I was able to do my usual work. I am fine, and I had gained in weight. My health has since continued good, and I give the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 20 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Millions Ready for U.S. Interest

Britain Prepared to Meet Payment Due in Autumn

The Government has completed arrangements to pay, during the coming autumn, interest amounting to $125,000,000 on the British debt to the United States. It has not yet been decided whether a special session will be sent to Washington to discuss the debt with the U.S. Government. It is stated in British quarters that the feeling in the United States is believed to favor the negotiations for the handing of the allied debts being undertaken with Great Britain first, she being the principal debtor. A model loan would be applied for subsequent negotiations with other countries.

At the Railway Crossing

Trains Get You Going, Coming and Standing Still

Railroad crossings are places where automobile drivers turn around and visit with the people on the back seat. They frequently become good neighbors by this process. Sometimes it is hard to distinguish one from the other after the train has gone by. The driver is always sure to pick out. He is the one with his face turned away from the railroad.

Many people are of the opinion that the highway crosses the railroad tracks. That is not so. The railroad tracks always crosses the highway. Some railroad tracks run four abreast. The person of his eye is higher than the single-track variety. It gets them three ways—going, coming and standing still.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Expeller have it at hand, because it proves its value.

Aviator Establishes

Endurance Record
Flew from London to Paris Twice in One Day

Captain E. B. C. Horne, who is piloting one of the new D.H.24 "ex" planes, on the London-Paris airway, succeeded in establishing a new endurance record in commercial aviation. Leaving the London air station at Croydon for Paris at 6:55 a.m., Captain Horne flew to Paris in 123 minutes. After half an hour's rest he flew back to Croydon, arriving at 11:51. Snatching a hasty luncheon, he was in the air again—still in the same machine—at 12:45 p.m., and alighted at Paris at 2:53 p.m. Spending only 22 minutes on the ground at Paris, he returned to Croydon at 3:15 p.m.

Within 11 hours Captain Horne piloted the same aeroplane 1,000 miles, his "flying time" being 3 hours 22 minutes. It is the first time that one pilot has flown to Paris and back twice in the same day.

The previous best performance was that of Captain Sheppard, who, on the day of the French Grand Prix in 1920, flew from London to Paris in 1 hour 52 minutes, and then back to London again, and then back to Paris once more before dusk.

Where Settlers Come From

A statement compiled by the Department of Immigration and Colonization shows that for the month of April 2,254 immigrants entered Canada from the United States, and 3,230 from other sources. Of the settlers from the United States, the state of Michigan contributed the largest numbers were from Arizona and North Carolina, with one each.

Lord Lee Glives His Opinion on Maintaining Navy

A number of prominent people have sent messages to the special June session of the Empire Club. Lord Lee, First Lord of the Admiralty, has a message saying that in these days of financial panic and economy at any cost, it is well to remember the unchanging fact that the security of trade and commerce, the continuance of food supplies and the very existence of the empire are dependent on the maintenance of sea power and an adequate and efficient navy.

11) When the up-to-date British baby goes for his morning airing these days he does it in a motor baby carriage. At the rear, riding on an extra wheel, is the little motor engine with two seats for the more-chanceful who turn on the gas, give the machine a little kick and away they go.

12) To fit around the world—Major W. T. Blake, the aviator who is to shortly commence a flight round the world in the shape of the Australian, Sir Ross Smith, with his wife and children. He will fly in a hydro-aeroplane similar to that in which Sir Ross Smith met with his fatal accident.

13) Little Billy Kelly, who has just arrived in Canada from Liverpool on the Canadian Pacific liner "Montrose," the carrier a little more than two weeks of railway travel which will take her 4,500 miles on a visit to 15 towns and cities in Canada and the U. S. A. The vessel had 221 passengers on board.

14) Miss Megan Lloyd George (see the right), who is here seen walking with a friend, closely enough resembles her famous father. The photograph was taken in the morning. The photographer caught her on the way to a tennis tournament in London.

15) A group of important emigrant visitors to Canada. On the left is General Drummond, on his left, Hon. M. M. Barnett, Premier of South Australia, a little in the background is Mr. Edward Carson, Attorney-General for South Australia, and to the left of him is Mr. William Hughes, of the London and South Western Railway. Behind them, Mr. Sutherland of the Southampton docks stands behind, and on the extreme right, Mr. Sutherland of the London and South Western Railway. They arrived at Quebec on the C. P. R. liner "Empress of Scotland."

16) A family of ten leaving the hotel together in such a hurry for a far country is an unusual event. Yet when the "Empress of Britain" left Liverpool recently, she had aboard amongst her third class passengers, E. Hilton, aged 41, and his wife Jane, aged 41, and eight children, three boys and five girls. The family are of the farming class, coming from Farmworth, Lancashire, and intend to continue farm life in Ontario. The Hiltons left two other members of their family behind in England, and these will come to Canada at a later date.

17) Stray babies are not so rare as they used to be. One of the other day the coming of the white man held powerful over to Alberta. They were photographed near Banff at which place they held an annual Indian day about the middle of July.

18) Apparently they have few other crops in India. These small little trees were part of a company that met the Prince of Wales when he was in Gwalior.

19) Women are now taking a larger place than ever in British athletics. The woman cricketer appears to have come, and it is quite good for anything it would seem that there is much to be said in her favor.
